Red Bank Catholic High School

Red Bank, New Jersey

foreword

"God is in His Heaven
All is right with the world"

We, the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred Fifty-three, have in the course of four happy years been at peace, secure in the belief that God, our Father, watches over, with love, our little school-day world from His Kingdom in the heavens above.

Now at parting time, we like to dare believe that our beloved Alma Mater, Red Bank Catholic High School, is a part of heaven itself; that we have trod a pathway to the stars and lived and worked and played by the strength of their brilliance; that we have only to reach out our hand to find in our teachers and in one another, new and brighter stars revealing God's wondrous light.

So, we have made of our EMERALD, a star-studded jewel that will shine in our memories as a silent messenger sent by God to direct each individual senior of the Class of 1953 to be always ready, like the Magi of old, to leave his earthly kingdom and journey by light of the star to the heaven where Jesus, Mary and Joseph are.

Dedication...

At the dawning of our high school life, there appeared in the heavens above us a brilliant Star, fashioned by the Lord God of Love to brighten the way of the Class of Nineteen Hundred Fifty-three.

Clad in the radiant blue of heaven itself, with a jeweled diadem upon Her brow and a silver sceptre in her frail, white hand, Our Blessed Lady of Light became for each of us the symbol of a lively Faith, firm Hope, and ardent Love.

When the troubling doubts of youth assailed us, we had only to look up beseechingly to feel the warm glow of Her Motherly love burst into radiance and shine upon us until every tiny fear flickered and died away.

Now, as the last days of high school fade into dusk and the world looms before us, we raise our hands in supplication to the Lady of Light, praying that She stay with us, guiding our way through life into the wonders of eternity.

In loving exchange for Her Heaven-sent guidance, we, the seniors of Red Bank Catholic High School, dedicate to Mary, Our Queen and Our Mother, under the title of MORNING STAR, a glowing memory of four blessed years —THE EMERALD of Nineteen Hundred Fifty-three.

In Memoriam

FRANCES PICCOLA
August 1950

PATRICIA NELSON
October 1951

To these three shining stars now in God's eternal orbit of love—
To Pat with her fair hair and dancing eyes—
To Frances with a smile to steal your heart away—
And to Peter with surpassing generosity and loyalty—
We offer this page, in memory of beloved friends for now and for ever more.

Boom!!! What a reaction???

Marji Goff's surprise balances Dave Barry's unassuming interest.

Les français les amuse!
French fashions fascinate Sue Price and Kathy Labrecque while Joe Flannery fait une promenade à travers Paris.

Ann Cushing reviews the U.N. for Ann Curley, Frank Callahan, Mary Conroy, Walter Kozik and Anthony Busch.

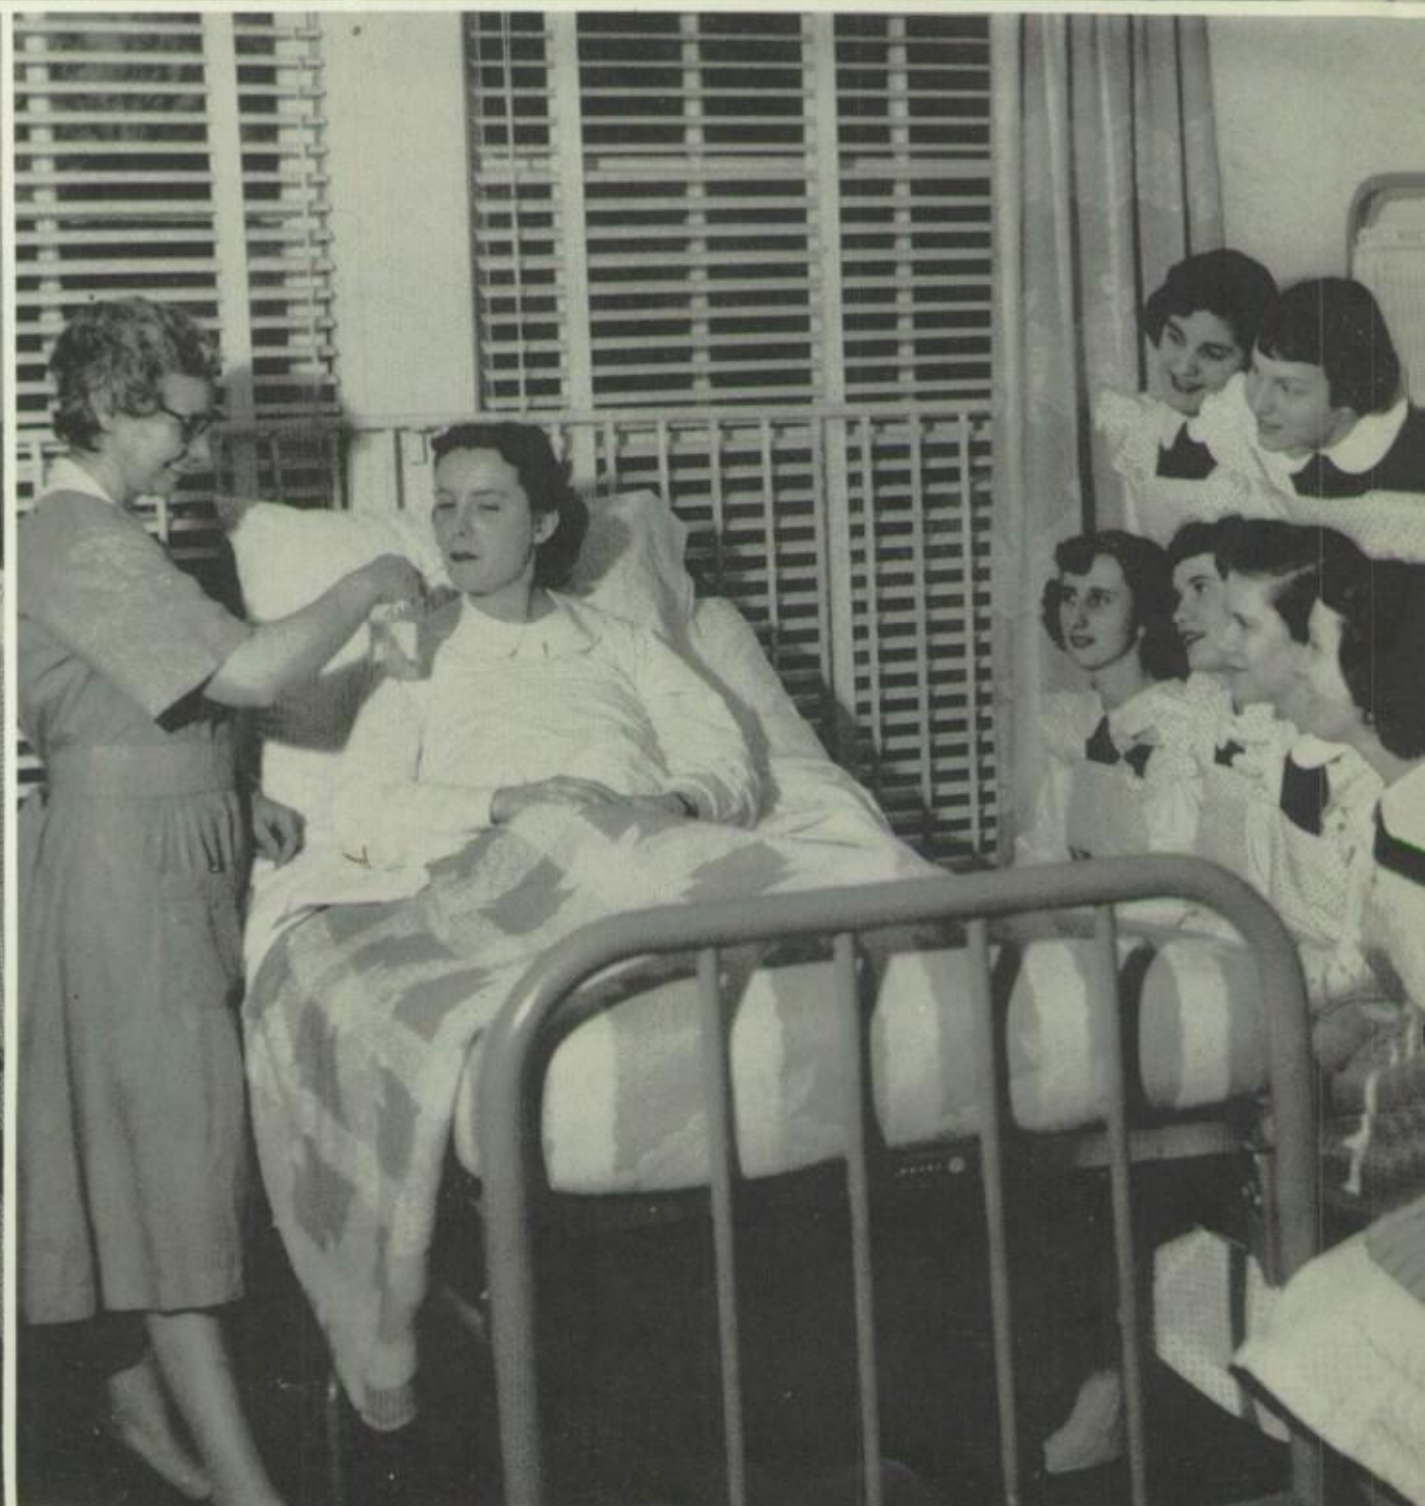

Busy homemakers, Pat Norris, Grace Manfredi, and Gerri Caprio preparing one of those famous Catholic Youth suppers.

Neil Fitzpatrick sounds the chord, so that Nancy Byrne, Walter Kozik, Mary Conroy, Ellen O'Brien, and Proctor Bush can sing—"a song a day keeps the heart young and gay."

Thallophyta versus Bryophyta!!
Bob Flanagan, Pat Egan, Jimmy Walden, Diane Oakerson, James Martin view the battle of bacteria in a microscopic world.

Mrs. Carroll doses out to Peg some of her own medicine—all seem to be enjoying it; Margot seems most anxious that Peg takes it!

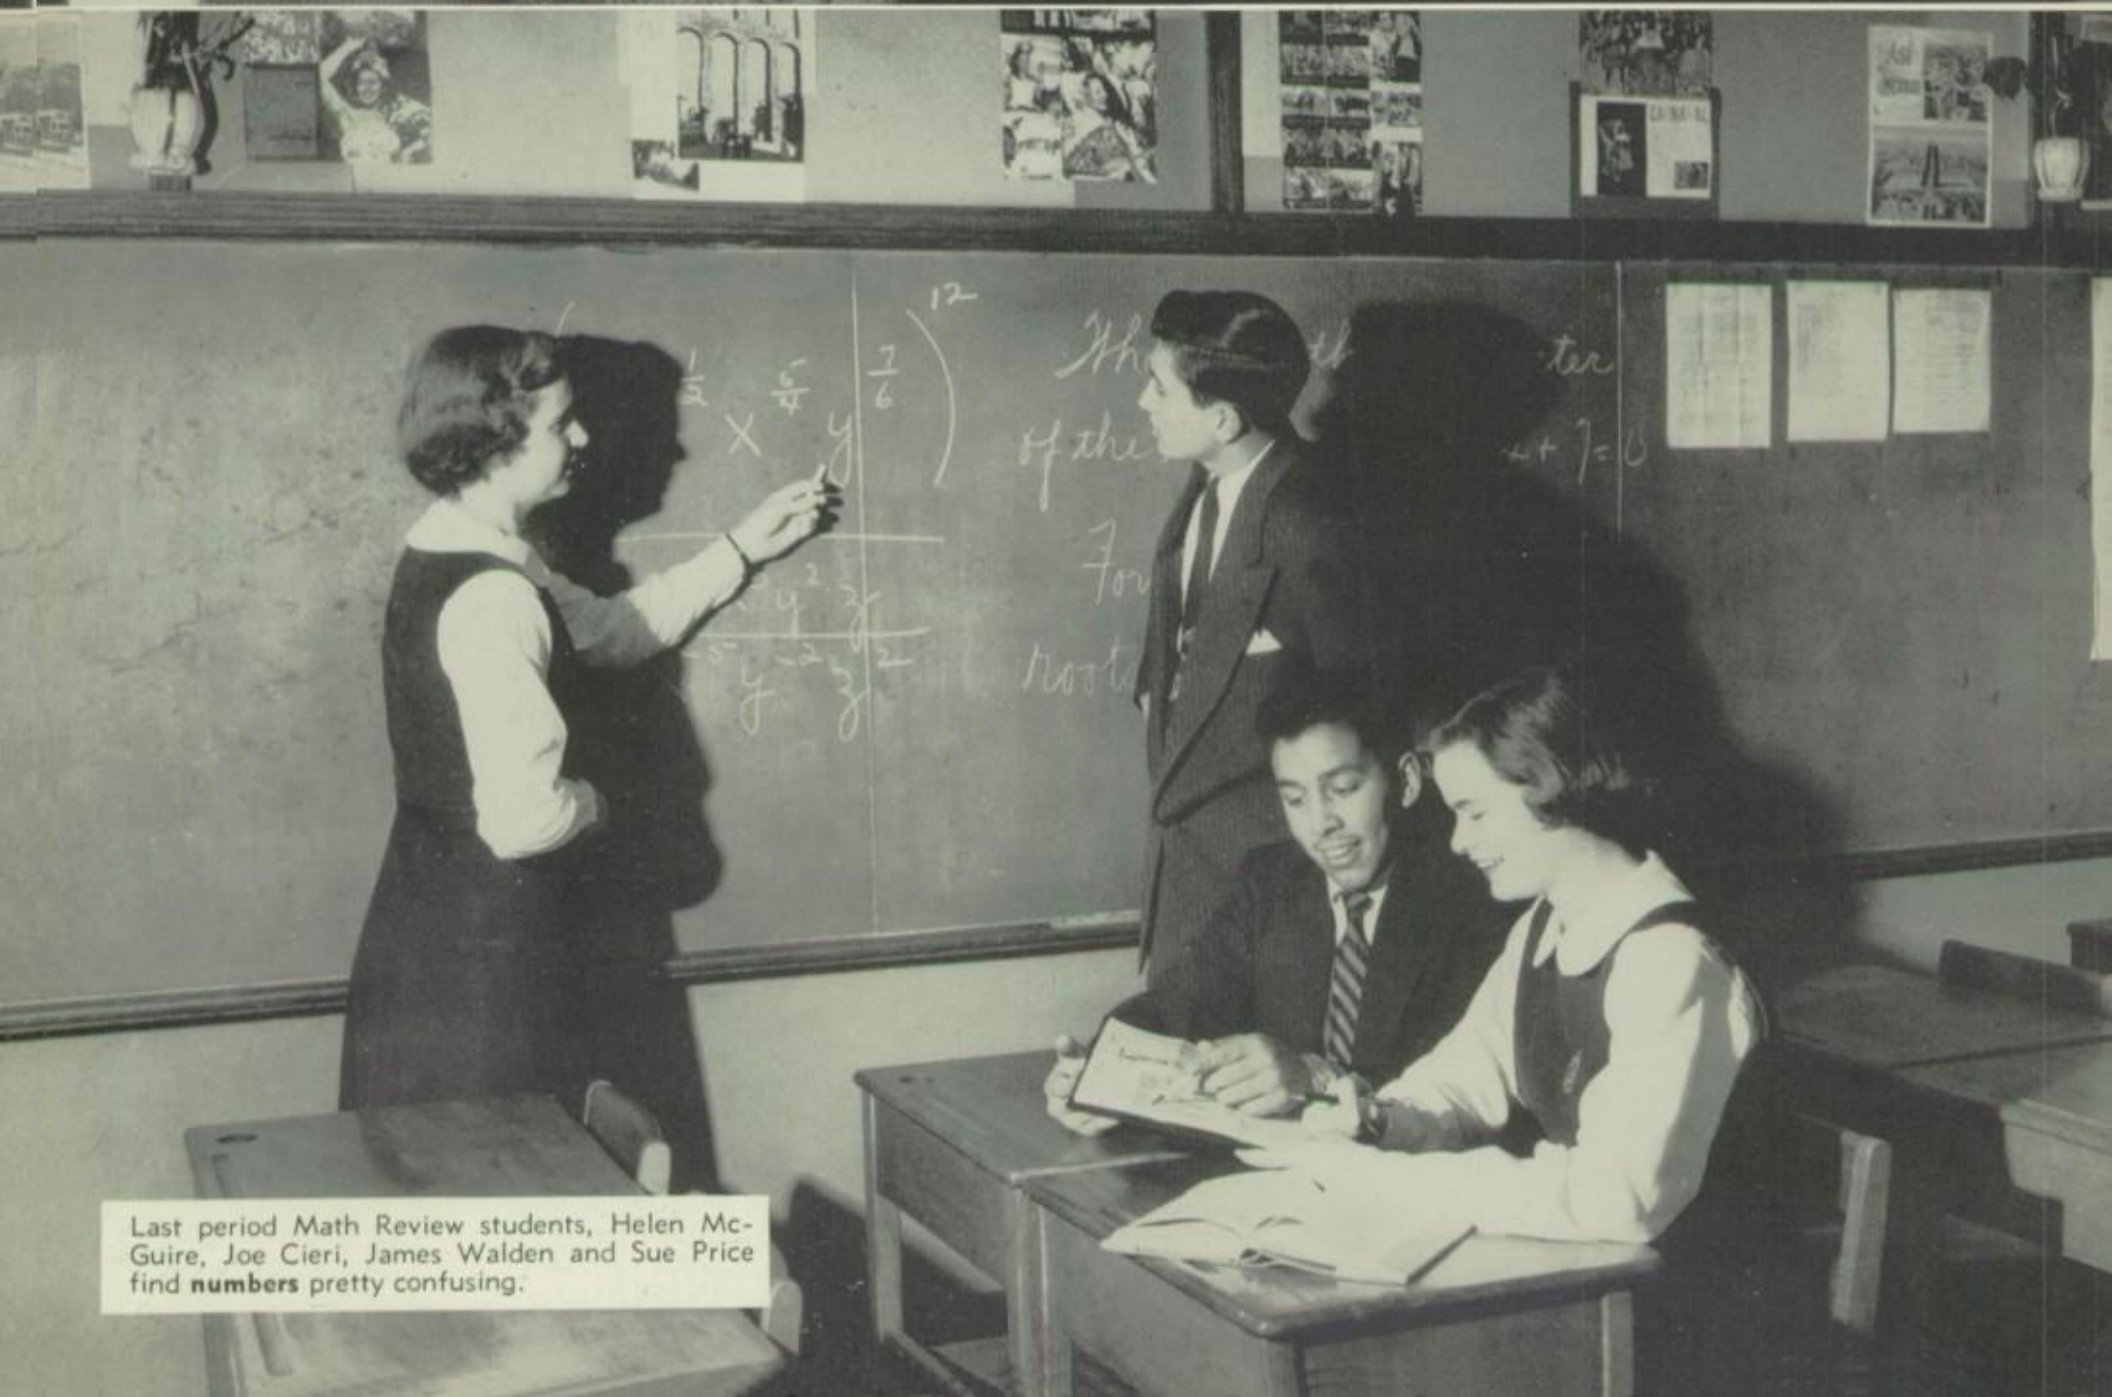

The camera catches a senior religion class intensely interested in the subject—Matrimony!!

"All Gaul is divided into three parts"—proclaims Bill Gaul to Helen McGuire, John Felleman, Joan Gilbarte and John Loftus.

Student teacher Dave Barry explains to Ed Gallagher and Mary Ann Carew the tricks involved in the successful manipulation of the slide ruler.

Last period Math Review students, Helen McGuire, Joe Cieri, James Walden and Sue Price find numbers pretty confusing.

It's a pretty weighty problem for Sue Mitchell, John Loftus, Gene Kennedy, and Joe Cieri to check and balance.

Balancing the budget, as usual, is no easy task for Jim Divers, John Durnien, John Dwyer, Bob Eckert, Ed Ostrander and John Sheehan.

"Take a letter, Miss Van Tresco".

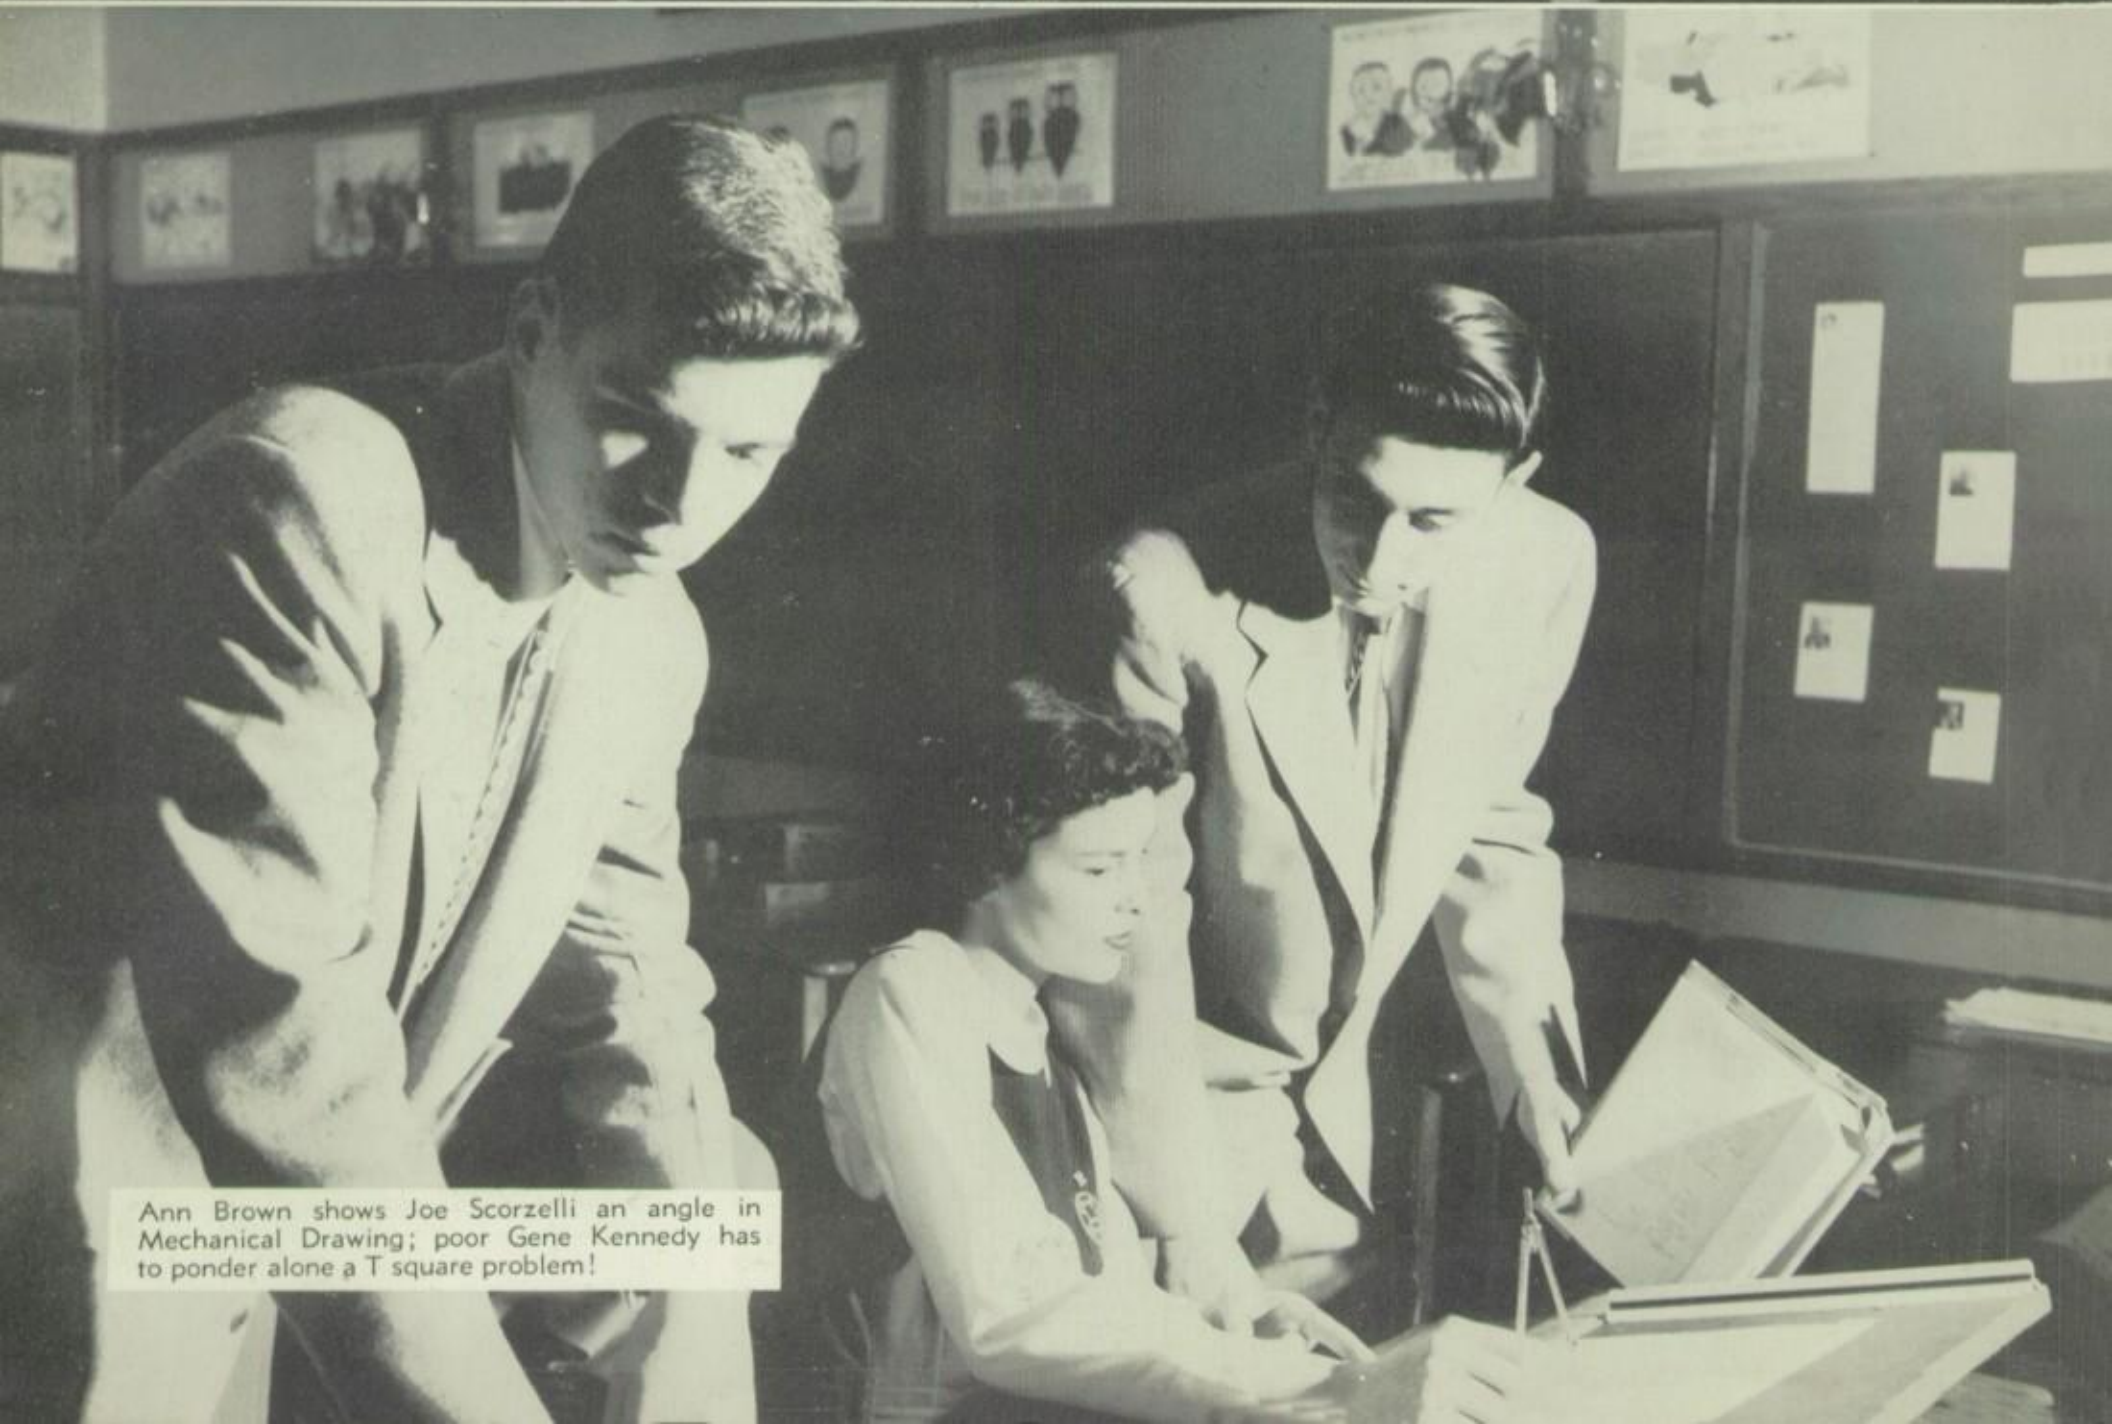

Under the watchful eyes of Mary, Eileen Butler and Peggy Corcoran can't miss being perfect secretaries.

Jack and Shirley—perfect specimens of American youth.

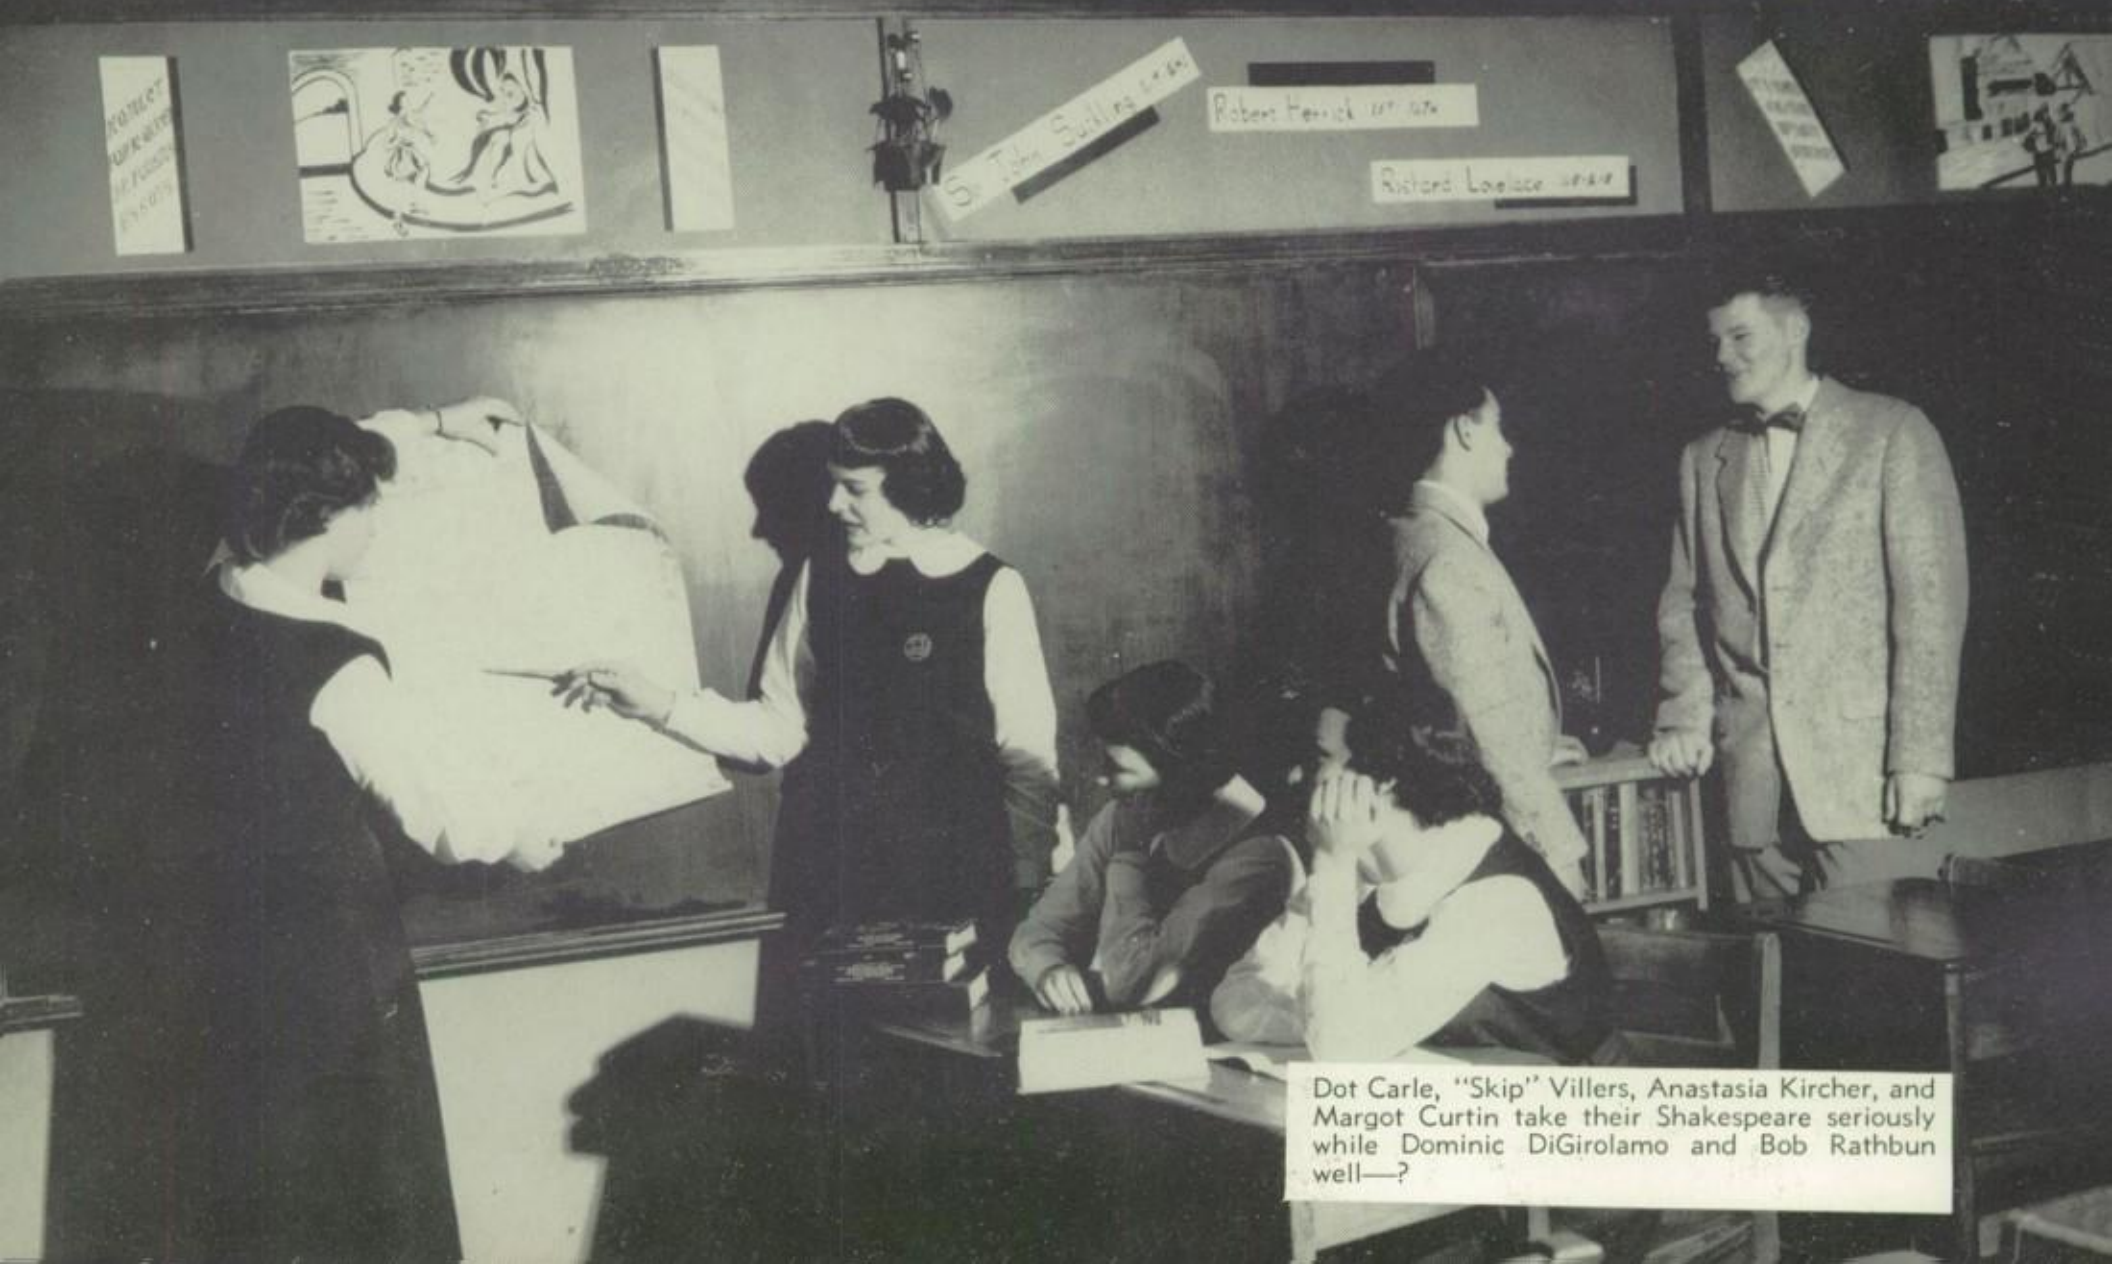

Doug Cavanaugh, Rosie Mehm, Helen Jeffrey and Jack Benning still artists in the making, sketch still life.

Ann Brown shows Joe Scorzelli an angle in Mechanical Drawing; poor Gene Kennedy has to ponder alone a T square problem!

"Hy" Cunningham, popular sports writer of the Red Bank Register, takes time out to proof read as anxious journalists, Mary Lord, Joan Brock, Jim Divers, Rosemarie Garruto, Mary Ann Carew and B. J. Cronan watch over his shoulder.

Dot Carle, "Skip" Villers, Anastasia Kircher, and Margot Curtin take their Shakespeare seriously while Dominic DiGirolamo and Bob Rathbun well—?

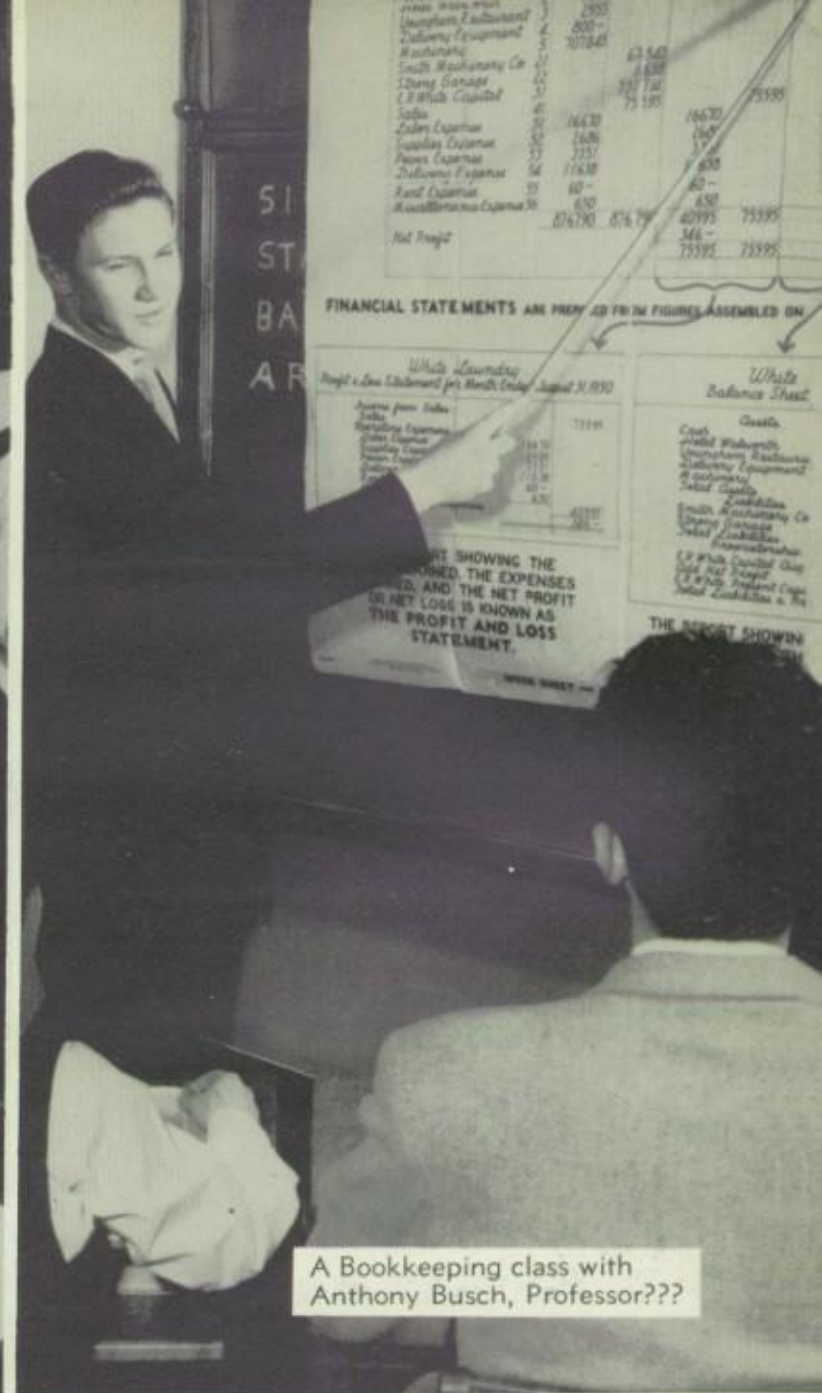

Pat Schucker and Danny Bills admire the original geometric designs; Rae Garruto solves for X.

"It can't be as bad as all that!" sighs "Murph".
"Ossie" wonders!! Harry Morgan and John Martin go right on "Consuming" Math!!

Nancy's famous last words,
"Out of ink again, Ruth!"

A Bookkeeping class with Anthony Busch, Professor???

The stage is set for a mock trial in Commercial Law. Frank Gaskill, Judge; Margie Ferraro, court stenog; John Murphy, prosecutor; Barbara Stephens, defendent; Elizabeth Newman, witness.

Senior's favorite spot "on campus"—enjoying the pause that refreshes.

A senior corner at the 12:20 lunch.

Trevor Daniel, Bruce Kerrigan, Joe Cieri and "Buzzie" Byrne welcome the pie-man!

The Dramatic Club's presentation of "The Miracle Lady" with Mildred Keelan as Our Lady; the beggar boy, Robert Bergen; Ed Shanaphy, a wealthy friend; Margaret Venturino, his Mother.

The Red Bank Catholic Junior Red Cross answers the call! Here we see Bill Gaul, Ei Butler, and Rae Garruto helping out at the Monmouth County Chapter House.

Regina Reilly watches anxiously as Ed Ostrander gets ready to use the enlarger. Ed's experience in the field has proven profitable to the Photography Club.

Mechanics at work! Hobby Clubbers trying to find out what makes the Driver Ed. car tick.

Tricking the Teens, Kay Villers, Cynthia Vogt, Teresa Conery, "Skip" Villers and Barbara Stephens

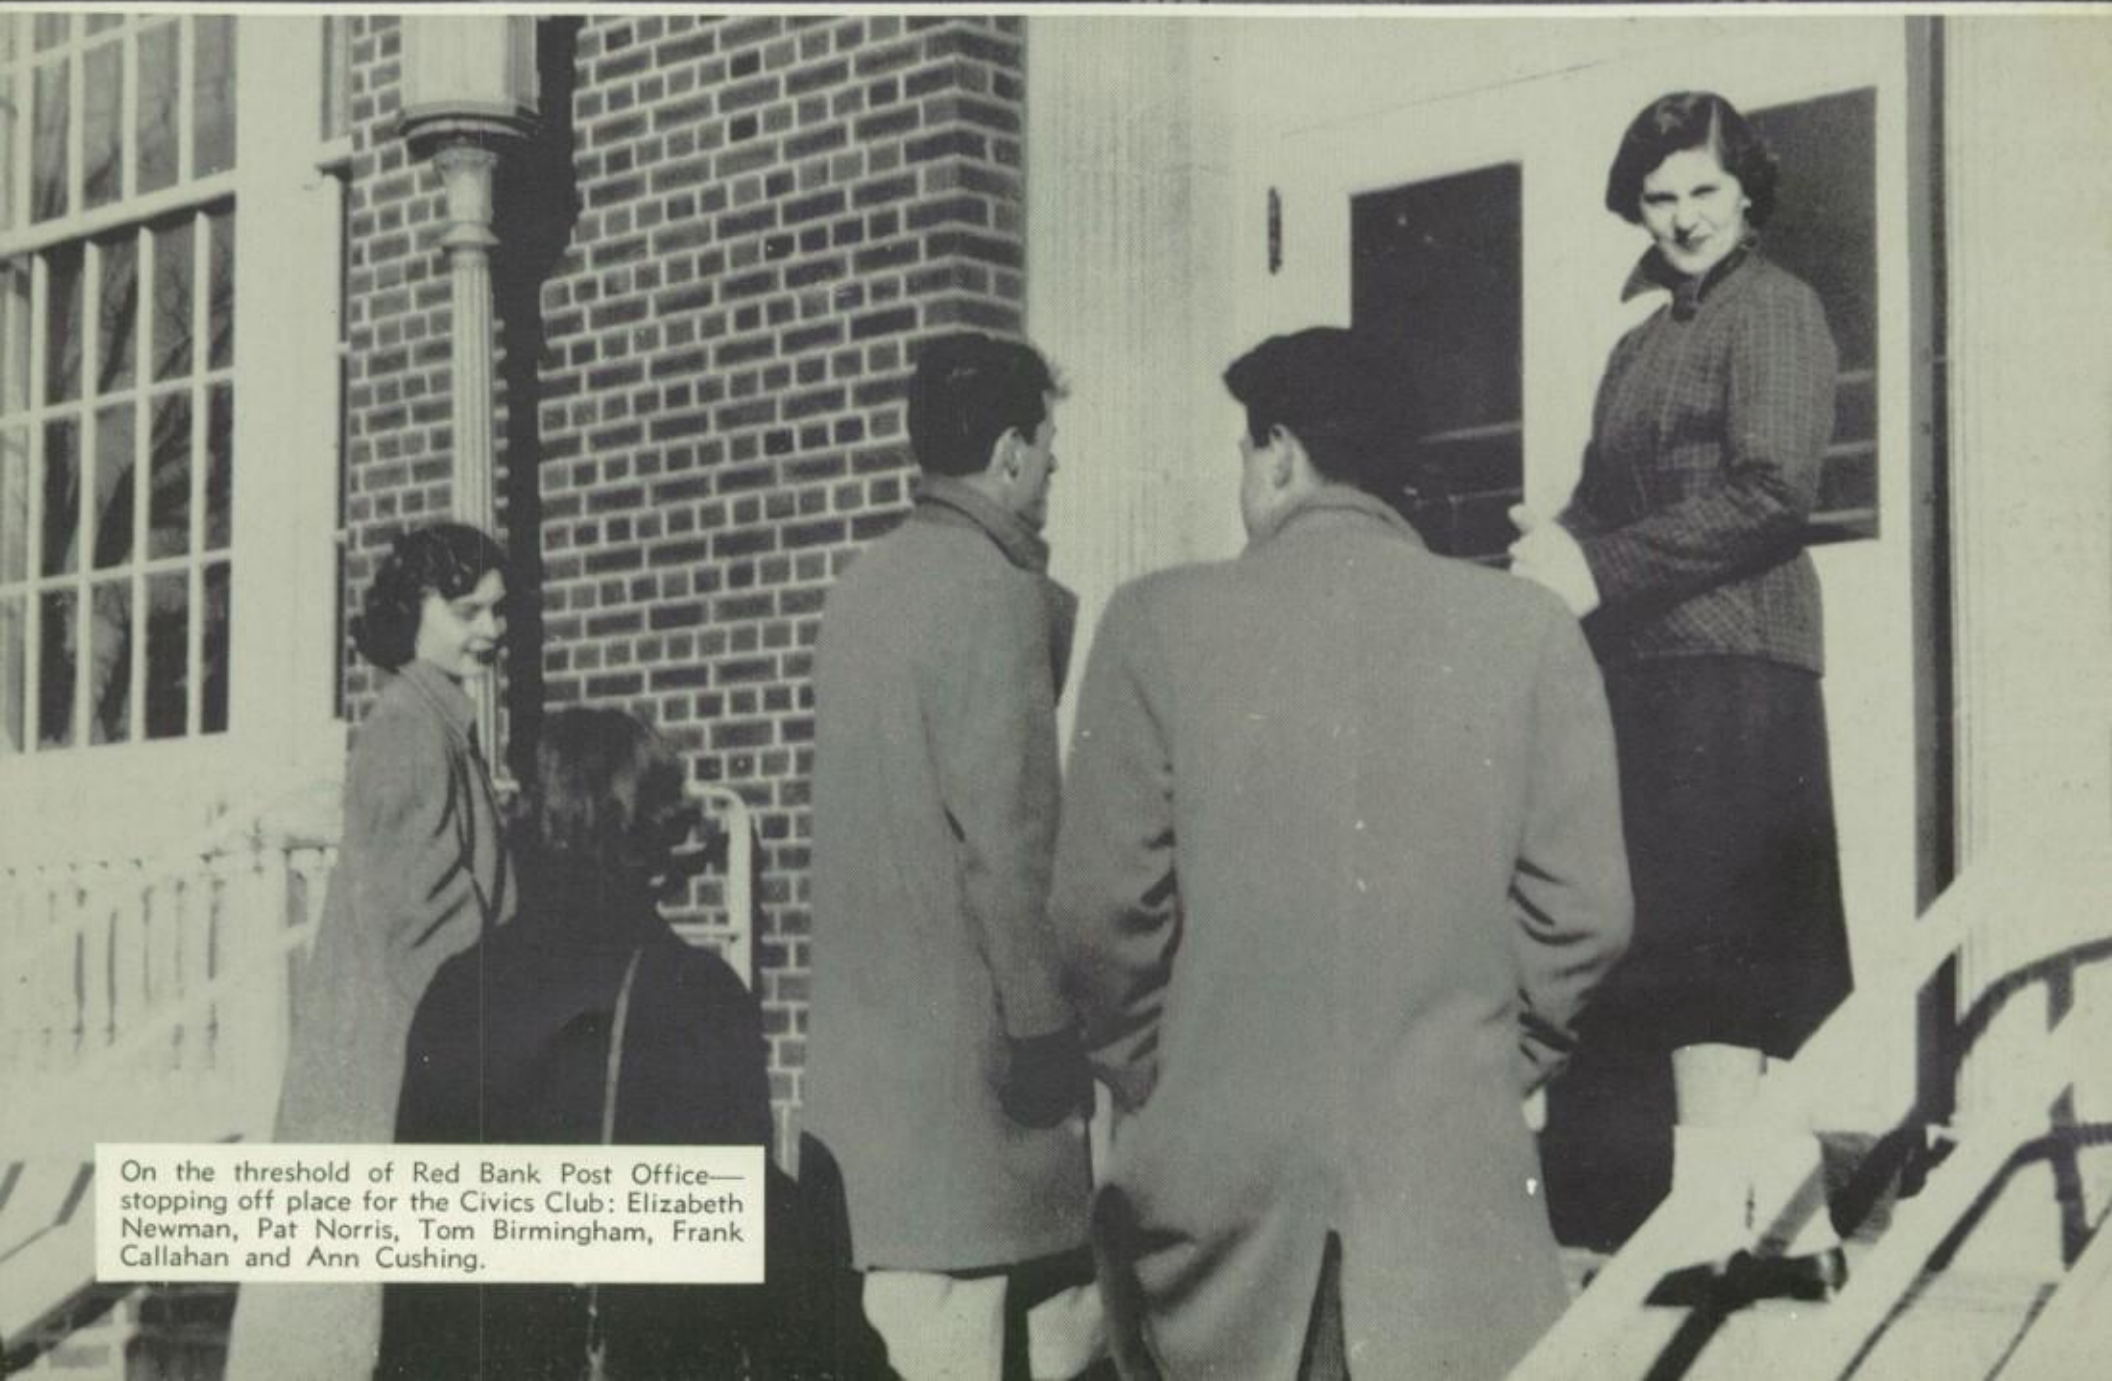

Señora Patricia Welch models Español apparel for Spanish Clubbers: Ann Curley, Teresa Conery, Gerry San Antonio, Emma Harris, Peter McCabe, Rosemarie Kozik, and Pat Schucker.

The Poster Club at work. Ellen O'Brien tells Joan Brock, "it looks easy from here." Diane Oakerson and Joan DeSantis finish their masterpieces for the Mission contest.

Marjorie Goff proudly displays Forensic League certificates, while Fred Crine practices to make perfect his chances for advanced degree. Sue Lynch plays critic!

On the threshold of Red Bank Post Office—stopping off place for the Civics Club: Elizabeth Newman, Pat Norris, Tom Birmingham, Frank Callahan and Ann Cushing.

Phil Rieman's project for Physics made an interesting study for the Science Club. Ed Gallagher is about to show Tommy Thompson and Dominic DiGirolamo just how you would go about unlocking the locks in the Panama Canal!

RBC's disc jockeys in the Recording Club— John Sheehan, George Gill, Abe Durnien and Jim Divers.

Richard Gala, Mary Conroy, Eileen Dietz, Emma Harris and Anthony Califano linger awhile after library club meeting.

Gene's daily battle with the freshman service squad—Get to work!

Heels, hats and gloves! Senior Color Guard on guard.

Priss waits with Sue for the Shore Special.

Bill and Joe prove—debating pays.

Sister Mary Agnese, Guidance counselor, helps Theresa complete after school plans.

Big business deal between Anthony and Bill—"The material's all right, but how about the price?"

Guard bids farewell to the colors—with a tear in their heart.

A favorite trio + a favorite hangout = Abe, Eck and Whip.

And in this corner we see a group of absorbed T.V. fans.

Noon time dancing the senior way!

Doug Cavanaugh, Helen McGuire and Jackie Bennett admire the Latin exhibit.

Front Row: Patricia Egan, Rosemarie Mehm, Susan Price, Jolene Goodall, Judith Kenny, Anne Teeter, Marjorie Goff. Second Row: Nancy Wise, Joan Becker, Joan Bloom, Patricia Connors, Margaret Coyle, Nancy Byrne, Marcella O'Gara, Geraldine Caprio, Virginia Musgrove, Mary Anne Raye, Mary Virginia Reulbach, Noelle Simpson, Joan Cooke. Back Row: Joseph Conte, Bernard Creighton, Paul Siciliano, William Rupy, Frank Maloney, Joseph Cieri, George Coleman.

Danny Brennan and Jack Harvey double on the music festival trombones.

The young 'uns in R.B.C.'s music department are on their way.

Business of getting ready for a performance.

The best of the fiddlers—Loretta, Denise, Mary and Margot.

Some senior Glee Clubbers caught in the spot light: Neil Fitzpatrick, Dave Barry, Doug Cavanaugh, George Brown, George Coleman, Barney, Creighton, Bill Rupy, and Phil Rieman.

Music Makers who have grown old and faithful in the band.

Silentium—back stage leads!!!

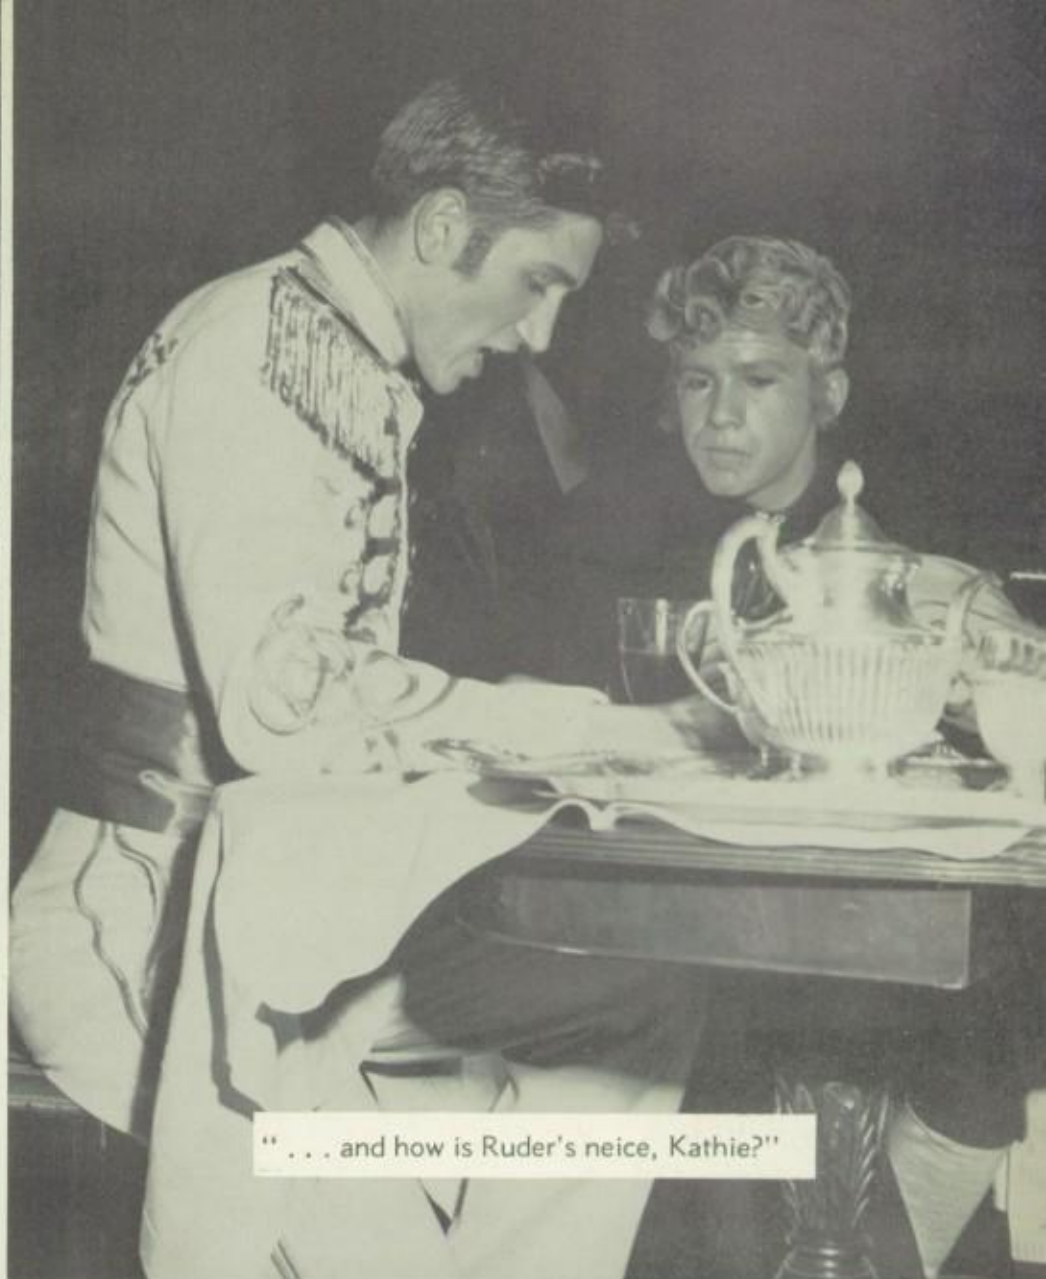

Ladies in Waiting

Opening Chorus on call—

Dinner is served in the Mauve Salon.

"... and how is Ruder's neice, Kathie?"

Ladies in Waiting to the Princess Margaret, Alexis, Victoria, Eugenia, Elizabeth, Marie.

"I see we have arrived."

"The Flag that flies above us, demands our life and love . . ."

"Come boys, let's all be gay boys . . ."

"Over head the moon is beaming"

Come to the 'Carnival of Spring'
and join the 'Magic of May'—

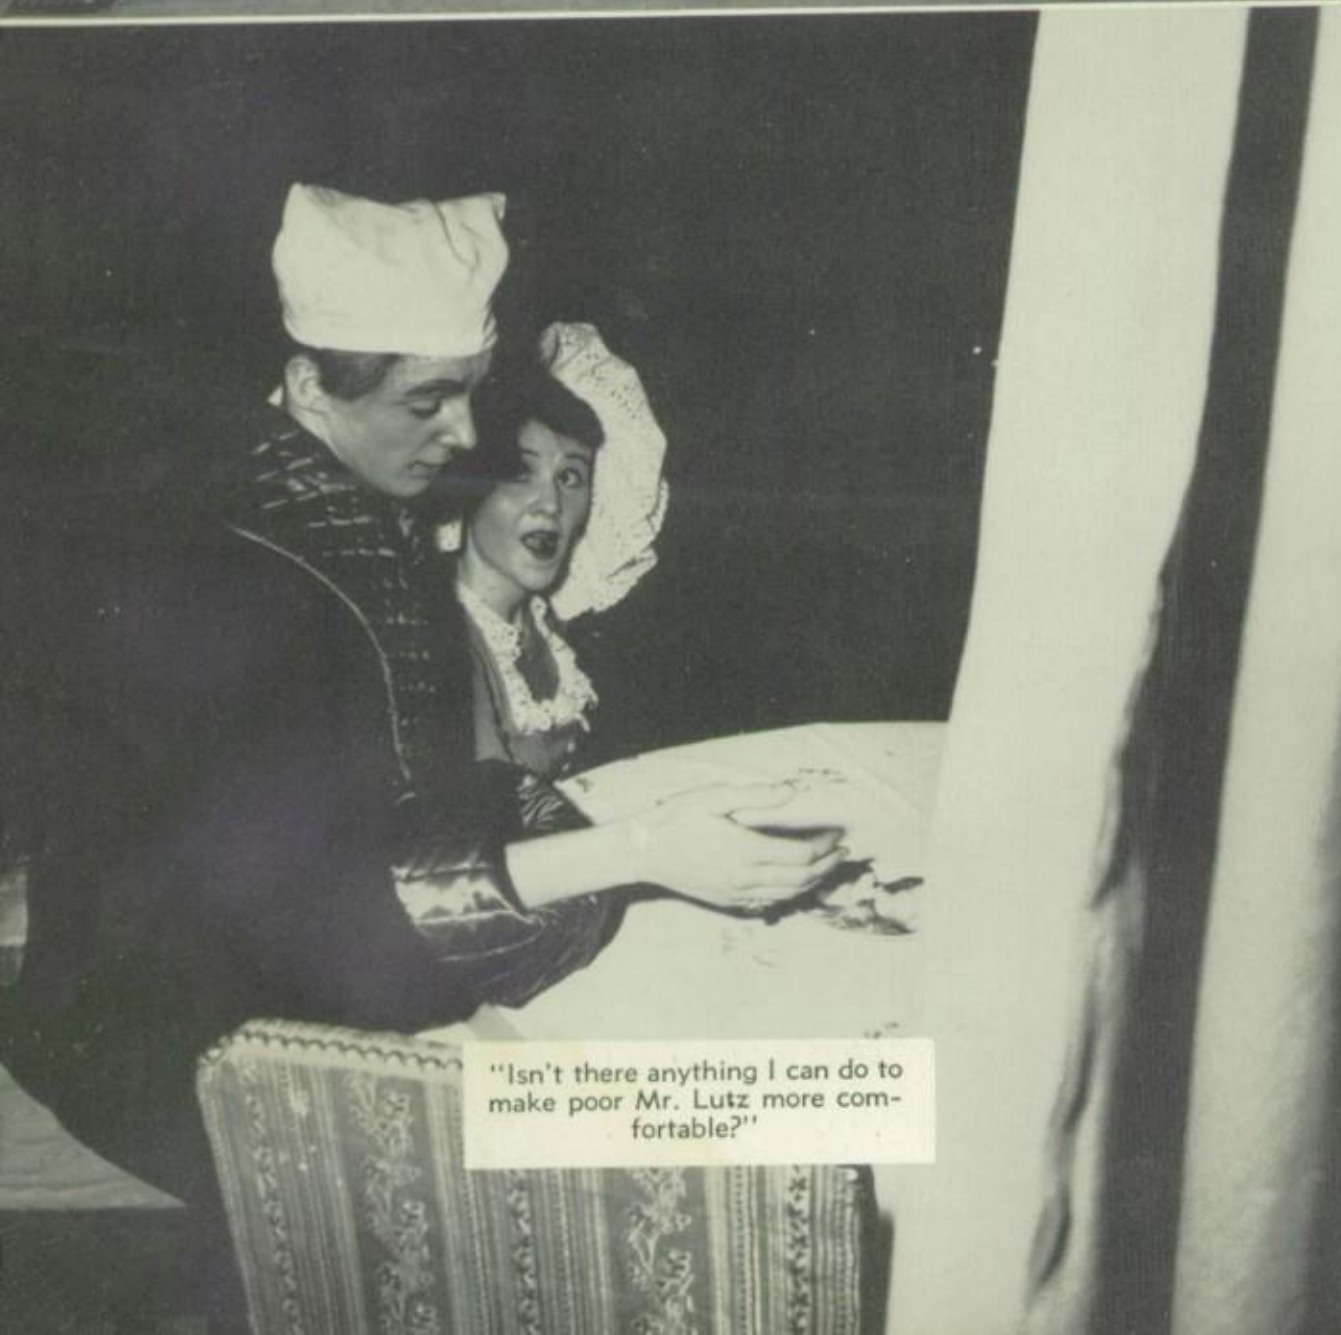

Ballerinas with their soloist Pat Schucker.

"Always, I'll dream of you—"

"My country calls; I must obey."

"Isn't there anything I can do to make poor Mr. Lutz more comfortable?"

"Waiting for your call, for orders large and small."

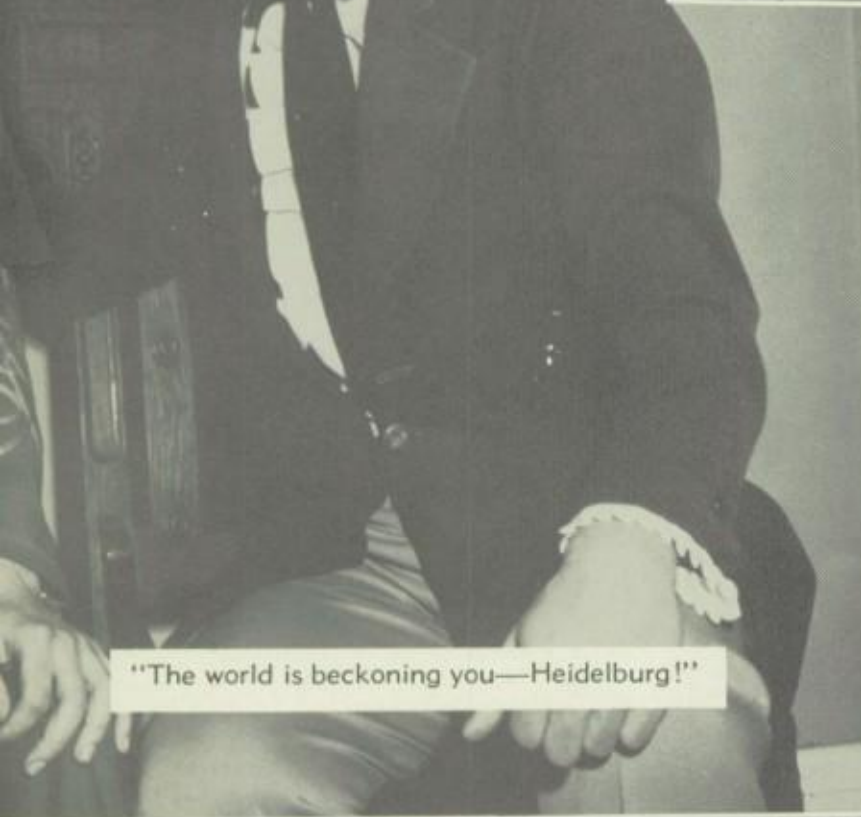

Von Mark announces the betrothal of the king.

"Sh—someone's coming" AND Joe has gone.

"The world is beckoning you—Heidelberg!"

"He W-H-A-T?"

"I'll remember forever—"

"Women are often fickle—"

"We—went—strolling through the park one day—"

Back to Philly after a successful run at Red Bank Catholic.
